Dear Mrs. Manley:

I have been expecting word from you relative to Raymond Dandridge. I also forwarded a letter directly to Mr. Dandridge in your care. I can not understand why he did not reply.

If I do not hear from him shortly I have no other alternative then to swear out a warrant for his arrest for concealing mortgaged property. This, of course, is the last thing I wish to do but you, as a business women, will surely realize the position we are in.

I would certainly appreciate it very much if you would help us in this matter. May I hear from you?

Yours truly,
